

15% discount in the online module “Media, information and Communication in the EU” of the Institut d'etudes européennes

The Official Chamber of Commerce of Spain in Belgium and Luxembourg and the IEE (Institut d'études européennes associated with the Université libre de Bruxelles), have signed a collaboration agreement through which the members of the Chamber can benefit from special rates in the courses and modules of the Executive Programmes of the Institute.

To help communicators enhance their skills in this difficult context, the IEE-ULB is offering, until April 20th, an exceptional 15% discount to our members on registrations for applicants to the online specialised module Media, Information and Communication in the EU.

The aim of this module is to introduce participants to the European media landscape and to the challenges of information, communication and public diplomacy.

Classes for this module will take place from April 23rd to May 23rd, 2020.

To benefit from the discount, all you need to do is to include the promotional code, on the “Additional comments” section of the application form.

Promotional code #2020-email-discount-Media-Comm

